Match them up. It's easier than you think!

- _____ 1. Things do not happen. Things are made to happen.
- _____ 2. Do not pray for easy lives. Pray to be stronger men.
- _____ 3. I never did give anybody hell. I just told the truth and they thought it was hell.
- _____ 4. When even one American - who has done nothing wrong - is forced by fear to shut his mind and close his mouth - then all Americans are in peril.
- _____ 5. The best way to begin genuine bipartisanship to make America stronger is to work together on the real crises facing our country, not to manufacture an artificial crisis to serve a special interest agenda out of touch with the needs of Americans.
- _____ 6. I saw courage both in the Vietnam War and in the struggle to stop it. I learned that patriotism includes protest, not just

- military service.
- _____ 7. Real Democrats don't make promises they can't keep.
- _____ 8. The issue is not abortion. The issue is whether women can make up their own mind instead of some right-wing pastor, some right-wing politician telling them what to do.
- _____ 9. All progress has resulted from people who took unpopular positions.
- _____ 10. A beauty is a woman you notice; a charmer is one who notices you.
- _____ 11. A conservative is a man with two perfectly good legs who, however, has never learned how to walk forward.
- _____ 12. A nation that destroys it's soils destroys itself. Forests are the lungs of our land, purifying the air and giving fresh strength to our people.
- _____ 13. Happiness lies in the joy of achievement and the thrill of creative effort.
- _____ 14. Here is my principle: Taxes shall be levied according to ability to pay. That is the only American principle.

Who Can Win??? By Laura Odegard

So who do you favor? Whose team are you on? We have a long list of gifted Democratic Presidential candidates to choose from. But among them all...

WHO CAN WIN?

WHO has the best chance of wiping out ANY Republican? Well. it may NOT be the person whose bandwagon YOU or ME—have jumped on. On the other hand, we MUST remember that ANY one of our potential Democratic candidates would make a better President than ANY Republican candidate!

We do then...NEED to back the POTENTIAL WINNER, no matter WHO it turns out to be, rather than the guy...or gal...we find most appealing.

So ask yourself—WHO CAN WIN????? Back that candidate!

Presidential Candidates Visit Waukon by Karen Pratte

There's an old joke about a reporter interviewing an Iowan. When asked what he thought of a particular candidate, the Iowan responded, "I don't know yet. I've only seen this candidate seven times."

Three of the Presidential Candidates have already visited Waukon. Senator Chris Dodd was the first to arrive on July 28. About 16 Democrats came out on an early Saturday morning to meet Sen. Dodd and hear his message. Francis O'Regan of Waukon was among them and was impressed with Senator Dodd saying, "Dodd is broad minded, honest and a good person. He has the experience to clean up this terrible mess that Bush is leaving behind."

Governor Bill Richardson was greeted by a crowd of about 50 people on August 28. Tom Hansen of Decorah is supporting Gov. Richardson "because Richardson has the international and executive experience that can't be matched."

Senator John Edwards, visited Waukon on the afternoon of October 5. The crowd kept growing to about 150 as the staff scrambled to find chairs. John Smola of Linton Township had this to say about Senator Edwards. "For me, Senator Edwards has the most thorough, thought out plans for problems facing the new president, from a solution in the middle east to health care here at home."

The campaigns of Joe Biden, Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama have said they will soon visit Allamakee County. To learn when the candidates are visiting, check the Allamakee Democrats' website at <http://allamakeecountydemocrats.com> and click on "Events." Also, listen to the radio and watch the newspapers.

Who knows, maybe each of these candidates will be back in Allamakee seven times before the January caucuses!
